Celebrating Women in the Cannabusiness

Happy International Women's Day! We work towards mainstreaming marijuana and celebrate each budding movement along the way. Women across the nation have created leading businesses and continue to thrive in this new legal industry. We proudly carry brands founded by badass women in our stores. Take a look below at just some of them.

Lulu's Botanicals

Lulu Bonner prides her brand on bridging the gap between gourmet food and healthy ingredients. She launched her low-dosage chocolate line in response to a family member's cancer diagnosis, and has spearheaded building awareness on edibles and responsible dosing.
